

2003 MUSIC BUSINESS SEMINAR

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2003

UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW | 405 HILGARD AVENUE | LOS ANGELES

Music has a tremendous impact on all of us, no matter our age or experience. Yet, breaking into the music industry is a virtually impossible task without having the proper knowledge and guidance of experts in the industry

Join California Lawyers for the Arts for our full-day seminar for artists, industry professionals, lawyers and students. The seminar will provide information on a wide variety of topics from knowledgeable persons within the music industry.

Topics include

- Music in TV, Film and Soundtracks
- Working with Agents, Attorneys and Managers
- Music Publishing
- Inside A&R

Attendees will also be provided with a handbook of useful information including forms, sample contracts and relevant articles.

Minimum Continuing Legal Education: California Lawyers for the Arts has been approved by the State Bar of California to issue 5.5 hours of Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit.
